EMU NEWS

Strewth half the year gone already OR, have we a whole half of a year left to enjoy? What's been happening? Dunno, have been a bit slack on the riding scene as of late , Congratulations on Mary C passing her 70th , and Layton Erly has reached 60 more about that elsewhere in this issue. If you haven't been out and about recently on the trusty motorcycle, next weekends your chance to redeem yourself with the trip to Hopetoun to meet up with the chaps & chapettes from the Rainbow Riders bunch (Albany and Districts) its about time we got back into a good intermob get-together.

Your invitation to Leyton's Piss up, read on for all the relevant information

LEYTON WRITES: Yes, I am still about, like the proverbial bad penny I turn up here and there. Dee was indeed correct about my coming of great age, alas no improvement in wisdom. I am now 60 and loving it! As my last birthday bash was ten years ago, through extreme frugality and meanness I thought it was time that I released my pet moths from my wallet and bought a few ales and lots of straws for all the derros, err I mean dear members of the Ulysses Esperance Branch to celebrate this auspicious occasion. So please come and have a good time at the Esperance Bay Yacht Club on Saturday the 18th of July at 7.30pm. I hope to have finger food (whatever it is that fingers eat) and beer and wine supplied from the licensed bar. I guess the latter would exclude BYO, unless you can be very discreet and pour copious quantities of single malt down my neck as chief taster. I will put a few bob behind the bar, so get there early before Marshy and Baz drink it dry. In order to stock up on "road kill" for the snacks, can you please advise of your intention to attend ASAP, thanks!! Hopefully this will also be in the 'Emu' shortly, but if you see any of the un-netted ones can you please let 'em know that I would love 'em to come too!

Have you noticed that the best motorbikes start with the letter B? BSA, BMW, Benelli, Buell to name a few. My 500 BSA more often than not fails to start with a few B words.

Hope to see you all, Cheers, Richard (Leyton Early) Tolman.

PS For the RSVP please email, phone 0418 932 768 or drop me a line at 38 Warrington Street.

Now on the subject of the afore mentioned, a couple of Sundays ago later in the arvo I was in need of some wind in the air, bugs in my teeth therapy, and the Tiger needed an oil change, upshot was we found ourselves doing a loop run, down near Rob's house I spied a rider coming towards me, not recognizing the machine I did the friendly wave bit to notice that the rider was wearing a familiar green English type Stadium skid lid, methinks that was Richard on a strange bike, after rounding the next corner spied a damsel in distress sitting by the road minding a broken down red BSA Spitfire, sensing a story here, we whipped around to sniff out the news, the damsel turned out to be our mate Ingrid, and the Spitfire had run out of go juice. Richard had galloped off on Ingrid's Beema to get some petrol.

Being a helpful sort of a bloke and thinking that our mate is probably going to need a push starte I waited.

Heh Heh Heh! Alas, Layton has not only got the Spitfire looking like a million bucks, but has the engine sorted also for she started up with only a couple of prods on the kickstarter (Anyone remember them?)

After flinging a couple of insults to each other we continued on our merry ways. Its these little incidents that make life worth living and motorcycles worth riding.

Under Down Under. Bob McCracken's book has now undergone a revision and is now in print worldwide. For a copy of Bob's book email him for details Robert.mccracken@westnet.com.au or to order from Barnes & Noble in the USA www.iuniverse.com Click on universe on line book store, type in Title and author Robert McCracken. Also www.bookfinder.com or amazon.com. Its real good read.

Email from Ray Prior about the camp at Hopetoun
Giddyay Homer,

I have contacted the Hopetoun Caravan Park today & booked 3 cabins for the, (first in first served), Rainbow Coast crew, the rest will have to arrange their own. I have booked under my name as well as Ulysses & told the owner about Ulysses Club.

It is a go-er.

Cheers, Ray Prior# 14398

A few minutes before the church services started, the congregation was sitting in their pews and talking.

Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the back entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate.

Soon the church was empty except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seemingly oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence.

So Satan walked up to the man and said, 'Do you know who I am?'

The man replied, 'Yep, sure do.'

'Aren't you afraid of me?' Satan asked.

'Nope, sure ain't.' said the man.

'Don't you realize I can kill you with one word?' asked Satan.

'Don't doubt it for a minute,' returned the old man, in an even tone.

'Did you know that I can cause you profound, horrifying AGONY for all eternity?' persisted Satan.

'Yep,' was the calm reply.

'And you're still not afraid?' asked Satan.

'Nope,' said the old man.

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, 'Why aren't you afraid of me?'

The man calmly replied, 'Been married to your sister for 48 years.'

A blonde woman was speeding down the road in her little red sports car and was pulled over by a woman police officer who was also a blonde.

The blonde cop asked to see the blonde driver's license. She dug through her purse and was getting progressively more agitated.

'What does it look like?' she finally asked.

The policewoman replied, 'It's square and it has your picture on it.'

The driver finally found a square mirror in her purse, looked at it and handed it to the policewoman. 'Here it is,' she said.

The blonde officer looked at the mirror, then handed it back saying, 'OK, you can go. I didn't realize you were a cop.'

A magician worked on a cruise ship. The audience was different each week so the magician did the same tricks over and over again. There was only one problem: The captain's parrot saw the shows each week and began to understand how the magician did every trick. Once he understood, he started shouting in the middle of the show,

"Look, It's not the same hat!" or, "Look, he's hiding the flowers under the table!" or "Hey, why are all the cards the ace of spades?" The magician was furious but couldn't do anything. It was, after all, the Captain's' parrot.

Then one stormy night on the Pacific, the ship unfortunately sank, drowning almost all who were on board. The magician luckily found himself on a piece of wood floating in the middle of the sea, as fate would have it... with the parrot. They stared at each other with hatred, but did not utter a word. This went on for a day... and then 2 days... and then 3 days. Finally on the 4th day, the parrot could not hold back any longer and said...

"OK, I give up. Where's the fun' ship?"

An old Nun who lived in a convent next to a big Brooklyn construction site noticed the coarse language of the workers and decided to spend some time with them during their lunch break and correct their wicked ways.

She decided to pack a lunch for herself and sit with them and convince them to refrain from such language.

She put her sandwich and flask in a brown paper bag and went over to the spot where the men were eating.

*She walked up to them and said to them with a big smile,
"Do you know Jesus Christ?"*

They all shook their heads and looked at each other. One of them looked up to where the steel-workers were having their lunch and yelled,

"Anybody up there know Jesus Christ ??"

One of the steel-workers yelled out,

"Why ?"

The worker yelled back'

"His mother's here with his lunch !"
