A bakery owner hires a young female shop assistant who likes to wear very short skirts and thong panties.

One day a young man enters the store, glances at the shop assistant and at the loaves of bread behind the counter.

Noticing her short skirt and the location of the raisin bread, he has a brilliant idea.

"I'd like some raisin bread please," the man says.

The shop assistant nods and climbs up a ladder to reach the raisin bread located on the very top shelf.

The man standing almost directly beneath her is provided with an excellent view, just as he thought.

When she descends the ladder, he decides that he had better get two loaves, as he is "having company for dinner."

As the shop assistant retrieves the second loaf of bread, one of the other male customers notices what's going on and requests his own loaf of raisin bread.

After many trips she is tired and irritated, and begins to wonder, "Why the unusual interest in the raisin bread?"

Atop the ladder one more time, she looks down and glares at the men standing below.

Then, she notices a Ulysses bloke standing amongst the crowd.

Thinking that she can save herself a trip, she yells at the biker gent,

"Is it raisin for you too?"

"No," stammered Ken, "but it's quivering a little."

Ulysses branches round the country, indeed round the world, dedicate the 2nd Sunday in September each year as a day of remembrance for those members who have "Ridden On". In most cases this is done in practice by all the Ulysses branches in a given area jointly or independently riding to a place where a short ceremony is conducted to honour those members.

The tradition in the greater Perth area is for branches from as far north as Geraldton and as far south as Bunbury and as far east as Kalgoorlie to ride to the park at Lake Leschenaultia, Rosedale Road, Chidlow.

One Monday morning the Postman is riding through the neighborhood on his usual route, delivering the mail.

As he approaches one of the homes he noticed that both cars were still in the driveway....

His wonder was cut short by Derek, the homeowner, coming out with a load of empty beer and liquor bottles for the recycling bin.

'Wow Derek, looks like you guys had one hell of a party last night,' the Postman comments.

Derek, in obvious pain, replies 'Actually we had it Saturday night.

This is the first I have felt like moving since 4:00 am Sunday morning.

'We had about fifteen couples from around the neighborhood over for some weekend fun and it got a bit wild. We all got so drunk around midnight that we started playing WHO AM I.'

The Postman thinks a moment and says, 'How do you play WHO AM I? Well, all the guys go in the bedroom and we come out one at a time with a sheet covering us, with only our 'family jewels' showing through a hole in the sheet. Then the women try to guess who it is.'

The Postman laughs and says, 'Sounds like fun. I'm sorry I missed that.'

'Probably a good thing you did,' Derek responded. 'Your name came up seven times....

A man was sunbathing naked at the beach. For the sake of civility, and to keep it from getting sunburned, he had a hat over his male treasure.

A woman walks past and says, snickering, 'If you were a gentleman you know, you'd lift your hat.."

He raised an eyebrow and replied, "If you weren't so ugly it would lift itself."

EMU NEWS

The Hopetoun trip was a blast and that's not just the icy wind, The weekender started by donning wet weather gear cause it was a bit windy and showery, riders gathering at the lay-by in the Ravie road were Homer & Lyn, Tor, Bill & Jenny, Marshie & Sue and Allan all mounted on their trusty motorbikes and Lee in her convertible, we all thought that she should be driving over with the top down but we couldn't talk her into it. Dee arrived with the news that Bob & Mary's Vulcan has spat the chewie at the fuel stop and wouldn't start again and that Evert was trying to help get it jump started, anyway before long they all arrived ok and in the face of intermittent drizzle and breeze we all set off. First stop Mungie for a comfort break, by now the weather had fined up and we all had an uneventful gallop into Ravensthorpe to meet up with the Rainbow Coast mob for lunch.

Our group of bikes combined with the Rainbow Riders sent up a fair sort of a rumble as we all choofed (or sped) down to Hopetoun. On the way in we got stopped by the Hopetoun lone cop who asked what outlaw bunch we belonged to, he was much relieved when I lifted my helmet and he clocked the old fart, he then proceeded to pull up Tor for speeding, he was doing 55 in the 50 zone, naughty Tor, but the cop let him off as he was only targeting locals on that day. The walloper then went to the camping ground to have a chat with the rest of the campers, he told us that he was bored titless in Hopie, nothing ever happens there. Mal & Christine our Ravie members arrived and set up their camp and Audrey drove over to try and keep Tor under control. A few riders had a bit of an explore around but most of us ended up in the pub, there was a big fire going, the beer was tasting extra good and the food menu looked rather inviting, the upshot was we stayed there for a longish while, Bob propped himself by the fire and held court with some of his old fishing buddies, Tequila Mick being one of them, The Rainbow mob went back to the camp ground for a BBQ and to down several cartons of alcoholic beverage, they are a rather thirsty lot, be warned if you ever have the opportunity to get into a session with them. After we had finished dinner we then went down to the campground to chew lots of fat and partake in a few social drinks It was a great way to enjoy some intra-club fellowship, catch up with old mates and meet new ones. Next morning some revelers rumbled off early, some slept in and some went exploring, subsequently after seeing off some of the Rainbow blokes and Mal & Chris at Ravensthorpe we headed back home never seeing another rider except Tor parked up somewhere, yes the showers started again at Munglingup. We all had a great time and as long as the mine stays shut and Hopetoun doesn't go mad again we will add this weekend with the Rainbow Coast Branch to the annual event ride calendar

And a note in from Ray at Albany

Hi Guys,

To keep the Branch interaction going, (Albany & Esperance recently had an overnighter to Hopetoun), I suggest we put November 14th & 15th in our ride calendars for an overnighter to Hyden, Wave Rock. What are your thoughts?

Kaloorlie, Esperance & Albany.

We can confirm at the Odyssey then arrange bookings at the Hyden pub.

Cheers For Now, Ray Prior # 14398 Secretary

A hillbilly farmer who wanted to get a divorce paid a visit to a lawyer. The lawyer said, 'How can I help you?' The farmer said, 'I want to get one of them dayvorcees.'

The lawyer said, 'Do you have any grounds?' The farmer said, 'Yes, I got 40 acres' The lawyer said, 'No, No, you don't understand, Do you have a suit?'

The farmer said, 'Yes, I got a suit, I wears it to church on Sundays.' The lawyer said, 'No, no, I mean, do you have a case?' The farmer said, 'No, I ain't got a Case, but I got a John Deere.'

The lawyer said, 'No, I mean, do you have a grudge?' The farmer said, 'Yes, I got a grudge, that's where I parks the John Deere'

The lawyer said, 'Does your wife beat you up or something?' The farmer said, 'No, we both get up at 4:30.'

By now the lawyer is getting frustrated but tries one last question ...The lawyer said, 'Is your wife a nagger?' The farmer said, 'No, she's a little white gal, but our last child was a nagger and that's why I wants a dayvorce.'

A fifteen year old Amish boy and his father were in a mall.

They were amazed by almost everything they saw, but especially by two shiny, silver walls that could move apart and then slide back together again.

The boy asked, 'What is this Father?'

The father (never having seen an elevator) responded,

'Son, I have never seen anything like this in my life, I don't know what it is.'

While the boy and his father were watching with amazement, a fat old lady in a wheel chair moved up to the moving walls and pressed a button.

The walls opened, and the lady rolled between them into a small room.

The walls closed, and the boy and his father watched the small numbers above the walls light up sequentially.

They continued to watch until it reached the last number, and then the numbers began to light in the reverse order.

Finally the walls opened up again and a gorgeous 24-year-old blond stepped out.

The father, not taking his eyes off the young woman, said quietly to his son....
'Go get your mother..'

THE LODGER

A British couple take on an 18 year old girl as a lodger.

She asked if she could have a bath but the woman of the house told her they didn't have a bathroom and she could use a tin bath in front of the fire.

'Mondays the best night, when my husband goes out to darts', she said, so the girl agreed to have a bath the following Monday.

After her husband had gone to the pub for his darts match, the woman filled the bath and watched as the girl got undressed.

She was surprised to see that the lass didn't have any pubic hair and told her husband when he came home.

He didn't believe her so she said, 'Next week I'll leave a gap in the curtains so that you can see for yourself'.

The following Monday, while the girl again got undressed, the wife asked, 'Do you shave?'

'No', replied the girl. 'I've just never grown any hairs down there. Do you have hairs?'

'Oh yes', said the woman and she showed off her thick, hairy Muff.

When the husband got back in she asked, 'Did you see it?'

'Yes', he said. 'But why the hell did you have to show her Yours?'

'Why not?' she said. 'You've seen it all before.'

'I know', he said, 'but the darts team hadn't!'

How about this poor sod

This is something to think seriously about.

Will I Live to see 80?

I recently picked a new primary care doctor. After two visits and exhaustive Lab tests, he said I was doing 'fairly well' for my age. (I just turned 60.)

A little concerned about that comment, I couldn't resist asking him, 'Do you think I'll live to be 80?'

He asked, 'Do you smoke tobacco, or drink beer or wine, indulge in chocolate or coffee?'

'Oh no,' I replied. 'I'm not doing drugs, either!'

Then he asked, 'Do you eat rib-eye steaks and barbecued ribs?'

'I said, 'Not much.... my former doctor said that all red meat is very unhealthy!'

'Do you spend a lot of time in the sun, like playing golf, sailing, hiking, or bicycling?'

'No, I don't,' I said.

He asked, 'Do you gamble, drive fast cars, or have a lot of sex?'

'No,' I said.

He looked at me and said... 'Then, why do you even give a shit?'
